

In response to your request for pictures, I am sending a recent one (end of last summer) of me and my youngest son, Dan, with his Chilean wife, Paola, and their kiddoes: Daniel (10), Will (8), Ben (6) and Sara (4). As I may have mentioned, very soon after Sara died, in May, 2013, Dan and Paola bought our house at 80 Ridgeway Road in Weston (where Dan grew up) and remodeled it to include a spacious apartment for me. And we have been living happily together ever since. As I like to tell people, I know that Sara went to heaven, but I have also come damn close!

I also have two other sons, Tripp and Clift, who live nearby in Wayland and Cambridge, with a total of 5 other grandchildren (including my Ethiopian granddaughter who is now 12). My daughter and her family, with 3 other grandchildren, live in Piedmont, CA. That's it for my family report.
